

György Martin-Hajdu

Mr György Martin-Hajdu is a financial expert with more than 25 years of professional experience. He worked in the banking sector for 12 years, first at BNK-KH-Dresdner Bank in the area of structured finance, then at MeesPierson Euramerica as corporate financial adviser, later as a senior partner at Concorde Securities Group. He had a major role in many IPOs, acquisitions and venture capital investment transactions. At present, he works as a freelancer, with focus on organizational development and coaching, and at the same time he is also active as financial adviser. He is honorary associate professor at the Corvinus University of Budapest, where he teaches applied corporate valuation. He graduated at the Karoly Marx University of Economic Sciences in 1987, and studied finance as a Soros scholar in Oxford between 1987 and 1988. He earned his university doctoral title in 1993. Currently he lives in Budapest with his family.